CADEN EPP

SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

OBJECTIVE

I am a highly motivated software developer with a strong drive to make a meaningful impact in the tech industry and within every role I take on. My motivation fuels a constant pursuit of growth, pushing me to become better every day through dedication, reflection, and practice. Guided by an obsession with curiosity, I actively seek opportunities to explore new ideas, technologies, and perspectives, allowing me to continually expand my knowledge and refine my craft. This blend of ambition and curiosity not only strengthens my technical abilities but also deepens my capacity to contribute creatively and effectively to the field.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Consistently on Presidents List for keeping a 4.0 GPA
- Leadership role as secretary for the CSD Club
- Hosting a Podcast - Let's Tech About It | IHCC CSD Podcast
  - https://ihcc-csd.vercel.app/Podcast
- Invited to a special instructor-led class, offered exclusively to select students, to help organize and lead the CSD Club's largest annual event, ByteJam.
